Silent Auction Items

To our members: Everyone is welcome to contribute something to the silent auction held during the annual meeting. Please think of something "Holsteiner" that's laying around the house.

Books...tack...horse DVD's...Jewelry...Coolers...etc.

All Items Listed On Our Website

All items will be listed on our website prior to the first day of the meeting. All members are welcome to call me on my cell 253-208-4574 and give a bid on an item.

So far we have a wonderful poster of Landgraf, Corde, Lord that is frameable. 5 tubes of Ulcer4gard (value $225). Holsteiner brow band. B&W framed and signed photo of U-Capitola & Birte; handmade jewelry; a brand new Snuggie; and two riding lessons. More is coming in everyday.

We'll post the list (as of February 1st) here and you can call me and bid on anything you want.

DONATE ITEMS; lets have some fun with this.

From Brian Bodarke:

We are putting in:

Three (3) "Diamond quilted black riding vests, with 50/50 poly-down fill. Zip front, and zip pockets. Included on these vests is the AHHA brand symbol embroidered in white. Sizes we got are M (6-8)

L (10-12)

X-L (14)

We also have a polar fleece jacket, zip front, in red and black, with the AHHA brand symbol embroidered in black. This jacket is unisex either a man' small, or a woman's medium/large

Susan has also enclosed a "Mystery Box". It's bigger than a bread box, but not an item of clothing. Her son is a designer for Dana Buchman, and this is one of his designs, that is supposed to be available for springtime in retail stores. This item will be gift wrapped, and remain boxed until the final bidding is completed.

From Lisa O'Brien.

Mrs. Pastures cookies

For the human gourmand: local butter honey, home-canned apple butter and pepper jelly, home candied pecans from local trees

For the equine epicurean: in lieu of home-made Texas Tastyums horse treats, Mrs. Pastures California invader treats (still a farm favorite - despite the suspect origins :-))

All packaged in a very cute decorative metal box.
