

Explanation of printing and setting photos/videos in publications and on the Internet

I.....hereby declare to the Holsteiner Verband that the photos/video recordings provided by me to the association of my stallion/stallions.....

of my stallion station.....

are free of rights and no fees can be charged to the Holsteiner Verband after publication.

The photos/videos were taken by myself or purchased and properly settled with the photographer/producer for release in the media mentioned here.

When "linking" to my homepage or other websites I assure that the photos/videos there were also properly purchased with the photographers/producers.

The Holsteiner Verband accepts no liability for photos/videos that have not been properly invoiced. In any case, the stallion owner responsible to the Verband is liable himself.
